Stares Consulting offers insightful vision to an alternative future for you and your business, helping you see the core values that describe your needs, wants and aspirations. Looking from the outside into the heart of your business, bringing clarity to process, thought to decision making, adding value to your business. Use this chart to understand the consulting process and the unique approach which we have developed. SME's in the construction industry such as contractors, design consultants and suppliers face huge challenges - our industry experience combined with our unique approach - provides the practical support to CEO's, managing directors, partners and the board who are determined to make their businesses thrive and prosper whatever the prevailing economic climate.

strategic support for senior decision makers

VIE bar			SION arrier
In this recessionary environment top heavy businesses abound. This can lead to inefficient decision making, increased stress and stagnation at the very time when clarity and honesty are essential for survival	Insightful business advice that enables your business to better see the way forward with clarity of purpose, visionary ideas and insightful yet achievable business plans	quo at board level - it becomes possible to break through the barriers to better quality decisions
NEEDS	WANTS	ASPIRATIONS	SUCCESS
Understand where your business 'really' is:  • Delivery is achievable  • Achieving track record  • Quality thinking brings value  • Clarity brings results  • Seeing is believing  • Believing is seeing	Assess where your business could be developed:  • A Foreseeable planned future  • Value added to business  • New business opportunities  • Stress free delegation  • Peer relationships improved  • Happy staff	Define how your business is going move forward: • Insightful business advice • See the way forward • Clarity of purpose • Visionary ideas • Achievable business plans	