Letter 'A' Redrawn

Letter 'K' joined up

Letter 'O' made geometric

The image shows the word "HANIKON" in a stylized font. The letters are primarily grey. The letter 'A' is circled in red and has a vertical line pointing down to the second version. The letter 'K' has a small red circle on its top horizontal stroke with a vertical line pointing down to the second version. The letter 'O' is circled in red and has a vertical line pointing down to the second version. The second version of the logo is identical to the first except for the modifications made to the letters A, K, and O.

Eurostyle Font Modification E1A

Eurostyle Font Modification E1B

The image shows the word "HANIKON" in a bold black font. It is identical to the second version of the logo above it, but without the red circles and connecting lines. This represents the refined version of the font modification, E1B, compared to the original E1A.
