

You can't cross a desert without water...

Why would you risk your case running out of funding?

It can be frustrating when funds dry up, particularly when you have a strong case.

That's why leading law firms turn to Therium for litigation funding.

Therium is a lawyer-led team and funds individuals, companies, trustees, insolvency practitioners, public bodies and charities. We fund and shoulder the risk in all forms of commercial litigation and arbitration, including group actions.
